

13 NOV 55

26 October 1955

Mr. Dulles:

Senator William Benton's secretary called from New York to say that you were going to send Mr. Benton some material, some of which would be classified and some unclassified. Mr. Benton wondered whether it would be in order to send the unclassified material via pouch to him in Moscow. The secretary said this could be done through Mr. Robert Blake of the Eastern European Affairs desk in State.

They asked that the classified material be sent to:

Mr. John Howe
Encyclopaedia Britannica
342 Madison Avenue, Suite 702
New York, N. Y.

STAT
STAT

DOCUMENT NO. 33
NO CHANGE IN CLASS.
 DECLASSIFIED
CLASS. CHANGED TO: TS S C
NEXT REVIEW DATE:
AUTH: MH 70-2
DATE: 2003/11

REVIEWER:

What are your wishes re this?