Dear

Your letter of February 26 has come today.

I expect to be in Washington for the week-end of March 20-21 and should therefore be available for [redacted] the following Monday or Tuesday if he should wish to see me. Please leave word with [redacted] as in all probability I shall have left [redacted] before a reply to this note can reach me here. I hope that I may talk with you and with Mr. Houston also while I am there.

With my regards,

Sincerely yours,

AB Darling
