Dear Bill:

I realize, of course, that your new appointment as Special Assistant to the President will leave you little or no time for other agency connections. We are, therefore, taking the necessary steps to terminate officially your Personal Service Contract as a Consultant with us, effective 14 February 1956.

Your counsel and guidance have been invaluable. We are, as I have told you, looking forward to the new and more important relationship.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

I realize, of course, that your new appointment as Special Assistant to the President will leave you little or no time for other agency connections. We are, therefore, taking the necessary steps to terminate officially your Personal Service Contract as a Consultant with us, effective 14 February 1956. I need hardly tell you that this does not mean a severance of our informal association. Should the interests of the country or the Agency dictate, I should like to feel free to call upon you.

Along with my congratulations on your new appointment, I send a word of sincere appreciation for the invaluable assistance you have rendered this Agency.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
