Dear Lowell:

Your letter of September 19 was awaiting me when I returned from a lengthy world trip.

Unfortunately, I was out of the country at the time of the Convention, but Stan Grogan saved me a copy of the speech you mentioned. * I'm quite favorably impressed with it. -

Many thanks for your letter and my best wishes always.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles

P.S. * Tom's speech was one of his best. I had a great trip -- 35,000 miles -- around the world -- 25 countries visited.
