

COLGATE UNIVERSITY
CONFERENCE ON AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY
HAMILTON, NEW YORK

Office of the Director

March 24, 1953

Dear Mr. Dulles:

You may be interested to learn that President Case and the University Board of Trustees have approved the continuation of the Colgate Foreign Policy Conference for 1953. It is scheduled for July 11th to 16th and we have chosen as our over-all theme "American Foreign Policy: A Global Re-assessment". I am enclosing a copy of our preliminary announcement together with a tentative outline of the program.

As you will perhaps recall we have hoped ever since the inception of the Conference to have you as one of our featured speakers, but in the past you have been unable to accept. This year we hope we may be more fortunate and it is with a great deal of pleasure that we invite you to address our delegates and guests on Wednesday, July 15th, at the luncheon plenary session when the topic under consideration will be "The Conduct of Psychological Warfare". We are endeavoring to schedule our principle addresses for the luncheon sessions in order to meet the press deadlines for the metropolitan papers. This would, of course, be a solo spot.

Because the Conference is a public service enterprise we are not in position to offer you an honorarium. We would, however, be glad to pay your expenses and send a car to either Utica or Syracuse to meet you and bring you to the campus.

It would be an honor and pleasure to welcome you to the University and the Conference. I very much hope you will be able to accept.

Sincerely yours,

Charles R. Wilson
