Dear Pete,

As Bill is away for ten days, he has asked me to answer your letter of 31 August. As [redacted] stated to you in his letter, we received his application forms in 1949. At that time, there was no vacancy which suited his qualifications. Such cases, however, are not completely forgotten and if vacancies occur the applicant is notified. Although I cannot promise any action, we will take another look and if anything develops notify [redacted]. However, he should in no way be led to expect that a job will materialize.

I am awfully glad to see from your letter that there is a possibility that you may be in Washington at the Strategic Intelligence School. I certainly hope so as it would be fun to see you both. Edna sends her love to you and Lotte. We both hope to see you in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

[redacted signature box]
