Dear Congressman:

Thank you very much for your thoughtfulness in sending me the two memoranda by [redacted] The ideas expressed by [redacted] have been under study and development in the Central Intelligence Agency for some time. As an example, there already exists a committee to assist victims of Communism. This committee is the National Committee for Free Europe, of which former Ambassador Grew is the Chairman.

COMMITTEE:
FOREIGN AFFAIRS

January 4, 1950

Rear Adm. R. H. Hillenkoetter, USN
Director of Central Intelligence 2430 E Street, N. W.
Washington, 25, D. C.

Dear Admiral:

I am enclosing herewith for your attention two memoranda sent to me at my request by [redacted]

While it is more than likely that these ideas have already been fully discussed and considered by your organization, I am acting on the assumption that perhaps some new thought might turn up.

In any event here they are. While I am in no hurry for their return I shall appreciate it if you will eventually return them with whatever comments you may care to make.

May I take this opportunity to send you my best wishes for the New Year.

I am sure you also know how much I wish you success in the arduous job which you have undertaken.

Very sincerely yours,

John Davis Lodge
