Dear General Eddy:

Thank you for the very kind remarks in your letter of 11 October 1949. Reference your request for a Central Intelligence Agency representative to speak on the organizations and functions of this Agency on 31 May 1950, this far in advance it is impossible to say definitely who will be able to make the trip. If my schedule will permit, I shall be delighted to give the talk. However, you may be assured that someone from the Agency will be present to speak to the students of your specialized intelligence class and that I shall communicate with you well in advance of the scheduled date and give you the name of the individual who will come.

Sincerely,

Signed & dispatched 10/17

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

During the past two years you have assisted us greatly by sending representatives of your Agency to speak to the students of our specialized intelligence class. It was a pleasure and a privilege for us to have both General E. K. Wright and [redacted]

This year we again would like to have a talk on the organization and functions of the Central Intelligence Agency. Naturally we would prefer to have you give this talk. We have tentatively scheduled this subject for two hours on 31 May 1950. I realize it is early for you to make a definite commitment but if we could have your general approval of the program, our planning would be greatly facilitated.

If you are unable to make the trip yourself, any one whom you consider qualified would be acceptable to us. [redacted] now assigned to your office, is a former instructor of our Intelligence Department and is thoroughly familiar with the nature and scope of the talk as scheduled. Either [redacted] [redacted] are suggested as possible alternates.

Faithfully yours,

M. S. BODY
