

SECRET

18 May 1950

Colonel Richard J. Warner
Executive Officer
The National War College
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Colonel Warner:

I am returning herewith the draft copy of the lecture given at the War College and I consider it correct as it is and have no changes to make.

Very sincerely yours,

51 - disp via OR 5/18/50

R. H. Hillenkoetter Legated
Rear Admiral, USN Return Receipt
Director of Central Legated
Intelligence

Encl.

D:RHH:lec
Distribution
Orig & 1 cc--addressee --returning encl.
1 cc--DCI
1 cc--Central Records w/ basic (less encl)

NOTE FOR RECORD: Basic dtd 15 May states: Following the custom of sending a draft copy of a lecture delivered here to the author for editing, we are forwarding herewith the stenotypist's transcription of your lecture on THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY. Please feel free to make such changes as you desire on the inclosed copy and return it to us. Unless the space is insufficient, please make your notations directly on the transcription. We we have received no corrections by June 15th, may we assume the record is satisfactory to you?

SECRET

MOR/CDF

Recch