Lt. Gen. Vernon A. Walters
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Dick:

I would like to bring to your attention the resume of a young lady who very much wants to get into the Intelligence area, with preference for assignment to a Spanish-speaking country.

STAT

[redacted] is the daughter of a family with whom I was acquainted and knew as friends in the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania area, and I can endorse her as a capable and dependable person who, I believe, would serve in any position for which she is qualified with distinction.

You will note that she has a Washington address, for the time being, and I hope that she may be able to be interviewed for either a presently available or prospective job in the future.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Arthur G. Trudeau
