Memo
Nancy,

2533 on WK SUBD.

1. Commander Ulmer (phonetic) of PFIAB Staff called to say that PFIAB member, Leo Cherne, heads an outfit called The Research Institute of America (RIA). The RIA is holding a meeting in Washington at the end of January for about 15 of its top sales managers from around the country. The RIA is the world's largest private business management and advisory organization (larger than the Kiplinger operation). Mr. Cherne would like to know if General Walters would be interested in speaking to the group for 30-60 minutes on CIA and the general problem of intelligence in America today.

Commander Ulmer said that the group will be meeting out at the Dulles Marriott on 29 and 30 January (he thinks). He will check details and let us know on Monday. The talk could be given either at Dulles or here in Headquarters. The latter might be better from a PR viewpoint.

I said that in principle I thought the DDCI would accept
