

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

3-116-1949 Act
[ ]

D R A F T

25X1

22 June 1950

MEMORANDUM FOR: ASSISTANT CHIEF OF STAFF, G-2,
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
DIRECTOR OF NAVAL INTELLIGENCE
DIRECTOR OF INTELLIGENCE,
UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

SUBJECT: Statement of Requirements for Operational
Communications

- REFERENCE:
- (a) Circular memorandum from the DCI to the Intelligence Directors of the Military Departments dated 8 May 1950, subject: Free Flow of Operational Information to CIA.
  - (b) Memorandum from the Deputy A. C. of S., G-2, Department of the Army, to the DCI dated 10 May 1950, subject same as Reference (a).
  - (c) Memorandum from the Director of Naval Intelligence to the DCI dated 23 May 1950, subject same as Reference (a).
  - (d) Memorandum from the Executive Officer to the Director of Intelligence, U. S. Air Force, to the DCI, dated 16 June 1950, subject same as Reference (a).

1. This statement of requirements is submitted as contemplated in the references for the information of persons in your agencies responsible for routing communications to the Central Intelligence Agency.

2. The Central Intelligence Agency is responsible for the production of national intelligence estimates. Any such estimate should be based on a complete knowledge of the situation in the foreign area under consideration. Any area situation is composed of both an indigenous element and a world element comprising those forces which affect directly or indirectly the indigenous element. Due to the position of the United States in world affairs, a very important part of the world element of any area situation is the United States influence. For this reason it is important that this Agency receive copies of all communications, both incoming and outgoing, which contain information of: (1) the strength, composition, disposition, and movements of United States forces abroad (composition and disposition in terms of major elements only), and (2) United States plans, policies, operations, activities, and actions affecting the situation in foreign areas. In addition, it would be of material assistance to this Agency to receive copies of all communications which transmit the views of key United States military officials concerning foreign area situations, whether such officials be stationed at home or abroad.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

3. The intent of the foregoing is to describe the type of information, not now received, which this Agency is desirous of receiving in the future. The Agency desires to continue receiving the material you already transmit, which is generally in the category of so-called "intelligence information."

4. The general concept imparted by this memorandum will be supplemented from time to time by specific statements of requirements concerning particular events, developments, etc.

5. Your cooperation in this matter is appreciated.

"23 June 1950

Concurred in by ORE:

[Redacted] (c) - 1949 Act

Concurred by OCO

[Redacted]

R. H. HILLENKOETTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

OK
for ORE

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Approved For Release 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP80R01731R002600050007-6

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

MEMORANDUM FOR: ASSISTANT CHIEF OF STAFF, G-2
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
DIRECTOR OF NAVAL INTELLIGENCE ✓
DIRECTOR OF INTELLIGENCE,
UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

SUBJECT: Statement of Requirements for Operational
Communications

- REFERENCE:
- (a) Circular memorandum from the DCI to the Intelligence Directors of the Military Departments dated 8 May 1950, subject: Free Flow of Operational Information to CIA.
  - (b) Memorandum from the Deputy A. C. of S., G-2, Department of the Army, to the DCI dated 10 May 1950, subject same as Reference (a).
  - (c) Memorandum from the Director of Naval Intelligence to the DCI dated 23 May 1950, subject same as Reference (a).
  - (d) Memorandum from the Executive Officer to the Director of Intelligence, U. S. Air Force, to the DCI, dated 16 June 1950, subject same as Reference (a).

1. This statement of requirements is submitted as contemplated in the references for the information of persons in your agencies responsible for routing communications to the Central Intelligence Agency.

2. The Central Intelligence Agency is responsible for the production of national intelligence estimates. Any such estimate should be based on a complete knowledge of the situation in the foreign area under consideration. Any area situation is composed of both an indigenous element and a world element comprising those forces which affect directly or indirectly the indigenous element. Due to the position of the United States in world affairs, a very important part of the world element of any area situation is the United States influence. For this reason it is important that this Agency receive copies of all communications, both incoming and outgoing, which contain information of: (1) the strength, composition, disposition, and movements of United States forces abroad (composition and disposition in terms of major elements only), and (2) United States plans, policies, operations, activities, and actions affecting the situation in foreign areas. In addition, it would be of

Approved For Release 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP80R01731R002600050007-6

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Approved For Release 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP80R01731R002600050007-6

material assistance to this Agency to receive copies of all communications which transmit the views of key United States military officials concerning foreign area situations, whether such officials be stationed at home or abroad.

3. The intent of the foregoing is to describe the type of information, not now received, which this Agency is desirous of receiving in the future. The Agency desires to continue receiving the material you already transmit, which is generally in the category of so-called "intelligence information."

4. The general concept imparted by this memorandum will be supplemented from time to time by specific statements of requirements concerning particular events, developments, etc.

5. Your cooperation in this matter is appreciated.

R. H. HILLENKOETTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

Approved For Release 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP80R01731R002600050007-6

CONFIDENTIAL