Hon. James M. McInerney
Assistant Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. McInerney:

In answer to your letter of 16 July 1952 I beg to advise you that there is no reason why you should not furnish to Senator Pat McCarran a copy of my letter of 10 July 1952 (T.S. #63814). In this letter we pointed out that this Agency, for the reasons indicated, did not wish the two persons referred to therein to be made available for interview which would lead to public disclosure. We also pointed out that our examination here indicated that they could not add any significant information on the particular subject of your inquiry in addition to that already available through [Redacted]

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Deputy Director

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Please let me know if there is any reason why I should not furnish to Senator Pat McCarran a copy of your letter of July 10, 1952 (T.S. 63814), in which you indicate that the Director of Central Intelligence does not wish to make available for interview or examination certain CIA employees, who attended conferences with Mr. Davies, and certain memoranda prepared by [redacted] or [redacted]
