STAT

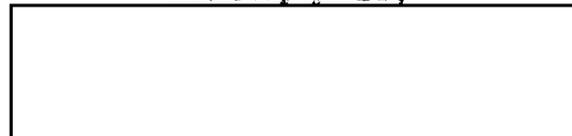

As a follow-up on your letter of 19 January addressed to Mr. John Foster Dulles, I have just received word from his brother, Mr. Allen Dulles, that this division might be interested in exploring the possibilities of considering you for employment.

While we have your completed Form 57, we would be interested in having you fill out the enclosed Personal History Statement and return it to us. When this material is received we will be in a better position to evaluate the areas of interest, where we may conceivably come up with something of mutual benefit.

If this raises any questions in your mind, I shall be glad to try and answer them for you.

Sincerely yours,
