

THE READER'S DIGEST
PLEASANTVILLE • NEW YORK

April 8, 1952

My dear Mr. Dulles:

The June Reader's Digest will publish a most complete, thoroughly documented (and terrifying!) account of Soviet techniques for world domination. It is condensed from "Conquest by Terror," by Pulitzer Prize-winner Leland Stowe. Because the Digest believes that it is quite possible that this book will become a definitive text on communism in action, we are sending you press proofs, in advance of publication. After reading "Conquest by Terror" you may be prompted to share and discuss it with friends and leaders throughout your community.

The Reader's Digest will publicize this shocking and urgent message by every means at our disposal. At least thirty-five million people in the United States and twenty-five million abroad will read the Digest condensation. "Conquest by Terror" will appear in all our twenty-eight editions, which are published in English, Spanish, Portuguese, Swedish, Danish, Norwegian, Finnish, Italian, French, German, Japanese, and Korean.

We should very much like to have your comments about "Conquest by Terror" for use in publicizing this book condensation. Any ideas you may have would be deeply appreciated.

Please accept our sincere thanks in advance for your interest.

Very truly yours,

A. L. Cole

Mr. Allen Welsh Dulles, Deputy Chief
Central Intelligence Agency

EXECUTIVE REGISTRY FILE 9.6424

7 May 1952

Mr. Dulles:

Mr. Wisner asked that this be returned to you - said he had spoken to you about it.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'W. J. ...', is written over the text of the letter. The signature is slanted and includes a large flourish at the end.
