OFFICE OF DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

Brown Palace Hotel
Denver 2, Colorado
August 20, 1952

Dear General Smith:

Please express my appreciation to the President for his courtesy and thoughtfulness in authorizing the Central Intelligence Agency to provide me with weekly intelligence briefings on the world situation.

The procedure outlined in your letter of August 18 will be entirely satisfactory to me, and I shall try to work out a schedule for this purpose that will be as convenient as possible.

Unfortunately, my itinerary is not yet sufficiently definite to establish specific dates or places at this time, but Mr. Green will provide this information on a short-range basis in the near future.

Sincerely,

General Walter B. Smith
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
