My dear Mr. Hays:

I am very appreciative of your letter of 24 November in STA connection with [redacted] His experience and background sound extremely interesting.

STAT [redacted] While it is impossible to state at this time that Mr.
might or might not fit into the pattern of our operations,
I would like to talk the matter over with him. If he would contact my office I am sure we can arrange a mutually agreeable time and date for this purpose.

Thank you for your interest and assistance.

Sincerely,

R. H. HILLENKOETTER

My dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

STAT

I am referring to you my friend, [redacted] a former [redacted] editor, who feels he may be of service to our Government. I spoke to my friend, Bill Donovan, about him, and STAT he suggested I send [redacted] to you.

STAT

I have known [redacted] since he came to this country some years ago, with a wife, a nephew and a son. The son is now a captain in the United States Army at present in Germany. The nephew was with Bill Donovan's outfit, and was killed in Service. [redacted] is a STAT man of varied European background, speaks many languages, and has recently been with the [redacted] If you can use a man of his calibre, I recommend him highly to you.

STAT

With assurances of my great respect, I am

Yours truly,
