Dear George:

In sending you the attached check for your consultant's fee in connection with your recent review of an estimate, I wish to transmit also my sincere thanks both for your valuable contribution and your willingness to assist further. These consultant's fees are not large but they will be forthcoming for work done by yourself and by other members of the Panel on which you have agreed to serve, and it makes me happy to be able to give something more than thanks for the time which you and other able people are willing to contribute.

I hope to be able to see you personally before too long. Nory and I are settled here and would love to have you and  come see us anytime you are in Washington.

Faithfully your friend,

W. B. Smith
