STAT

STAT Dear :

I have your letter of February 12, and I did safely receive your earlier letter. I have talked with several of my friends here about you. You can be sure that if anything turns up where I feel your great knowledge of Germany could be put to effective use, I shall certainly let you know.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

SUBJECT :

25X1
Referring to your memorandum of February 14, with regard to , I see no objection to your getting in touch with her as I feel she might be of some use despite the comment in memorandum from Dick Halms which is a fairly good appraisal of the person in question. Please let me know of the action taken. Meanwhile I am merely acknowledging her last letter of February 12.
