(2) AD/O Memo, same subject, dated 27 February 1951

STAT

1. [redacted] suggested to you as a possible candidate for the Agency by [redacted]. Following your suggestion, [redacted] got in touch with [redacted] and discovered that he had previously been interviewed by a representative of Personnel Procurement who had asked him to prepare and forward the usual papers. We have examined these and have asked Personnel to keep us advised as to their progress.

2. [redacted] will graduate from Harvard this year and appears to us to have considerable promise. We have told Personnel that we would be happy to consider him for a place in O/O. He has applied for a Naval Reserve commission, but it is probable, from his papers, that his eyesight will prevent this.
