Dear [redacted]

Last month [redacted] wrote that I might receive a letter from you in the near future, and I am pleased to hear from you directly. From his letter and from your own, I believe that you have qualifications that might well be of interest to us in our work.

I note, however, that you expect to receive an Air Force commission upon graduation next month. Under an agreement which we have with the Armed Services, we do not recruit individuals who hold ROTC commissions.

If by any chance you expect to be in Washington in the near future, I should be glad to see you and give you any suggestion about the possibility of later coming with us, if that is your desire.

Sincerely,

/s/

Allen W. Dulles
