General W. B. Smith
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear General Smith:

Mr. Gordon Gray has been in bed with the flu the last few days and has asked me to write to you and to tell you that a copy of his report went to the President, one to you, and today I mailed one copy, without the classified portion, to Joe Short. There were only two copies of the classified annexes, one of which went to the President and the other one you have.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. Ardith B. Johnson)
Secretary to Mr. Gray
