Status of Projects

25X1

Problem: To reallocate responsibility within CIA for handling and custody of material.

Comment: Complexity of problem has arisen because of special handling of this material insisted upon by G-2, and the conflict between this insistence and these two principles: (a) that CIA shall determine for itself how it will handle any material it gets; (b) that normal C&D procedures should be used in every instance.

Status: Original OIC suggestion of shift from ONE to OCI was opposed by OCD and ONE (on grounds of support of OCD); possible reduction of sensitivity of material was frustrated by renewed G-2 check with field; in conversation, Carlan, G-2, has agreed to OCD handling under the same special precautions as characterize Cosmic.

Next steps: 1. Prepare memorandum shifting responsibility from ONE to OCD, gaining concurrence of OCD, ONE, OCI; memorandum should provide for transfer of files.

MEMORANDUM

[REDACTED]

25X1

I called Carlan today on this. He is now Executive Officer of the newly created Collection and Dissemination Division of G-2. He indicated that G-2 had made a check among the users of this material within G-2 circles with "unsatisfactory results" (whatever that means), and that yesterday he sent a cable to the field on the matter. He is unwilling to say whether as a result of the reply he receives the handling of [REDACTED] material will be relaxed or tightened. Pending a further word from him, we will continue as is.

If we do not get a relaxation from that source, it will then be time for us to force our own wishes as to the handling of the material in CIA.

24 August 1951

25X1 Note on [] material

Carlan today confirmed the value of the [] material and the sensitivity of the source, indicating that G-2 would be unwilling to accede to any relaxation of special security treatment for these papers.

I suggested to him that under the circumstances we would set up a control and handling arrangement similar to that used for COSMIC documents (not pointing out that OCD was the custodian in this instance), and that sort of handling was acceptable to him.

25X1 Accordingly, get the [] materials back into OCD channels, and get OCD to afford them the same sort of treatment which is accorded to COSMIC, with the added concession that copies could be sent to OCI for study before being returned to OCD for special security storage.

25X1 [] was notified by phone 28 August.

SUBJECT: Receipt, custody, and control of material

ENCLOSURES: TAB A - Memo to Major General Bolling from the DCI re above subject

TAB B - Memo from AD/CD to the Director re above subject, dated 22 May 1951, with attach.

TAB C - Memo to Major General Bolling from the DCI re above subject, prepared by AD/CD

25X1

I. Problem

To designate to G-2 an officer of CIA to be responsible for the receipt, custody, and control of material.

25X1

II. Discussion

a. O/NE, a staff member of which is presently responsible for material, has recommended that the responsibility for receipt and control of this material be transferred to O/CI, and O/CI has indicated its willingness to undertake this responsibility. ed of O/NE.

25X1

b. G-2, the source of material, has requested a formal memorandum notifying them of the recommended change and has urged the continuance of special security handling.

c. At present only O/NE and O/CI have knowledge of or access to the substance of material. G-2 has requested that this not be extended.

d. O/CD disagrees with the recommendation of O/NE on the grounds that the special handling desired represents an unwarranted departure from normal procedures (see TAB B). While agreeing in principle with the position of AD/CD, this office nevertheless believes that the very sensitive nature of the material and the inter-Agency comity involved here justify the suggested departure and accordingly recommends as below.
