MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY, JOINT LOGISTICS PLANS COMMITTEE

Subject: J.I.C. 383, Joint Dictionary of Military Terms for Army-Navy Use.

1. At its 151st Meeting, 5 February 1947, the Joint Intelligence Committee instructed the Joint Intelligence Staff to discuss with representatives of the Director of Central Intelligence, the changes to intelligence terms and definitions recommended in J.I.C. 383.

2. The J.I.S. has met with representatives of the C.I.G. and on behalf of the J.I.C. wishes to withdraw the definitions for the following terms recommended in J.I.C. 383 and to substitute the definitions enclosed herein:

- Capabilities, enemy
- Combat information center
- Counterespionage
- Counterreconnaissance
- Espionage
- Information, essential elements of Intelligence
- Intelligence, combat
- Intelligence, estimate
- Intelligence, operational
- Intelligence, radio
- Propaganda
- Psychological warfare

3. The J.I.S. and C.I.G. have not yet determined a definition for the term "intelligence plan" but will continue discussions and will notify the J.L.P.C. when a definition is available. If no agreed definition is available by the date of completion of the Dictionary, it is requested that the term "intelligence plan" be deleted entirely.

4. Attention is called to a typographical error in J.I.C. 383. On page 11 of Enclosure "A" under "TARGET INFORMATION CENTER," the word "sections" in line 3 should have been lined out.

R. U. HYDE,
Secretary.
