V. CANCELLED PROJECTS

1. PROGRAMS AFFECTING ESCAPEES, REFUGEES AND DEFECTORS

Ref: Council - NSC Action Nos. 870-b and 893

Origin: Paragraph 4 of the reference Progress Report stated that PSB is submitting to the NSC a full report on the President's Escapee Program. The Council on July 30 noted an oral report by Mr. Cutler that he had requested the PSB to widen the scope of the report to the Council referred to in the progress report to relate all of the programs affecting escapees, refugees and defectors, with recommendations as to organizational arrangements to improve the integration of these programs (NSC Action No. 870-b).

Current Status: The Council on August 27 approved a recommendation by Mr. Cutler, concurred in by the Psychological Strategy Board and the Bureau of the Budget, that the study of organizational arrangements for better integration of programs affecting escapees, refugees and defectors, be cancelled pending further experience in the operation of these programs.

2. COMMUNIST INFLUENCE AMONG STUDENTS IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES

Ref: Plan. Bd. - Record of Meetings, June 29, August 10 and August 31, 1953; PSB D-33; Memo, August 4, 1953

Origin: The Planning Board on June 29 agreed to recommend that the Psychological Strategy Board with such outside assistance (e.g., from the Ford Foundation) as might be appropriate, prepare a study and recommendations on the subject.

Current Status: The NSC Planning Board at its meeting on August 31 noted an oral report on the subject by the PSB Adviser and agreed that, in the light of programs already under way and contemplated, no further action by the Planning Board on this project is required for the present.
