CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP
INTELLIGENCE REPORT

COUNTRY  Germany (Russian Zone)

SUBJECT  Conscription of Wehrmacht Personnel in the Greifswald Area

DATE:  INFO.

DIST.  August 1947

PAGES  SUPPLEMENT

1. Since the end of May 1947 labor conscription has commenced in the Greifswald area. The call-up follows a medical inspection at the local labor office, where Soviet medical officers are present. Collecting camps for this type of labor are located at Stralsund, Stettin, and Rostock.

2. From information obtained at the local Komendatura, the conscripts are destined for the Red Army and Navy, the reasons given being an acute shortage of specialists.

3. Former Wehrmacht naval personnel are collected at Stralsund and Stettin, former Panzer and motorized personnel at Rostock.

4. The following specialists are particularly required:

- W/T operators for tanks
- Drivers for the "Panther", "Tiger" and "Royal Tiger"
- Drivers for siege guns
- Mechanics for all above types of vehicles

This document contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act, 50 U.S.C. 31 and 32 as amended. Its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.