During May 1950, 20 physicians and 12 engineers came to Albania from Eastern Germany to serve in the Army and the Ministry of Public Works. The physicians were detailed to various military units as majors, lieutenant colonels, and colonels. The engineers, at the time, were given jobs in Tirana where they were billeted at Hotel Volga.