1. [redacted] there must be no illusions about the present tendency of the Macedonian comitadjis (fighting cells). The Yugoslav Macedonians, like Macedonian Slavs everywhere, feel drawn toward Bulgaria. They cooperated with Tito for a time because he was willing to set up a Macedonian People's Republic in the general framework of the Yugoslav Federation. [redacted] They were all the more willing at that time because Tito was cooperating with the Bulgars in a plan for a Greater Macedonia.

2. [redacted] the Macedonians feel that their hopes were illusory. They are aware that Tito is sending Serb secret agents to observe what Macedo-Bulgar agents are doing. Again, the thoughts of the Macedonian comitadjis are turning toward Bulgaria, Communist though the Bulgarian government may be.

50X1-HUM

3. In other words, Macedonian partisans in the Macedonian Republic, though the Republic is still part of Yugoslavia, are about ready to collaborate with the Bulgarian Communists. The Bulgarian Communists have already secretly arranged for collaboration, working for Tito's overthrow and stirring up once more the idea of a Greater Macedonia.
