Memorandum for: Deputy Director (Administration)

From: Legislative Counsel

Subject: CIA Appropriations
Weekly Report No. 7

1. On 27 February a dry run was held on the prepared material for the Director's Appropriations Committees appearances. Certain minor adjustments in the presentation are now being made prior to discussing it with the DCI.

2. It has been recommended that the DCI talk with Congressman Mahon in order to establish the general procedure for this year's budget hearings. However, there is no word that the DCI has as yet talked with Mr. Mahon.

Legislative Counsel

CIA Appropriations
Weekly Report No. 6

1. On 5 February Mr. Saunders and I talked with George Harvey, Chief Clerk House Appropriations Committee. He informed us that a subcommittee would probably hold a hearing on the CIA appropriation "within two or three weeks" and that we should be prepared by 14 - 15 February.
2. Mr. Harvey thought that the special committee may be chaired by Mr. Mahon rather than Chairman Cannon.
3. The Comptroller and I are working together on the preparation of the necessary material for the Director's appearance.
