DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SOURCES METHODS EXEMPTION 3B2B
NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2008

1) In review of the pertinent traffic regarding D's assignment and subsequent to Libya disclosed that there was apparently [illegible] a meeting of minds between him and [illegible] regarding compensation, allowances etc. plus a statement by L. that D. L. "had made it quite clear there could be no raise [in salary] or supplements at this time".

2) Upon D's return to Rome, he submitted a claim in the amount of 654,700 lire which covered per diem & travel for 93 days although [illegible] had expended a total sum of not more than 300,000 L. (30 days @ 6,000 lire plus 180,000 lire for transportation.) D arrived Rome from Libya on or about 5 May 1947 [illegible] cabled [illegible] requesting ETD. [illegible] was not notified that he was to be kept in Europe until after two weeks (?) [illegible] 18 May 47)

3) In addition D's operational expenses totaled 368,592 Libyan pounds which according to D. were approved by the [illegible] Base officer with the exception of special hotel & medical expenses after his accident totalling 38,744 Libyan pounds. On 16 June 1947 [illegible] received a dispatch suggesting that "[illegible] obtain the necessary accountings" for operational expenses. This was done by [illegible] but without the knowledge of the situation in Libya or the op. tasks assigned to D, therefore it was quite impossible for [illegible] to evaluate these accountings. D. had practically no receipts for any of his bills except for hotel bills (D. explained he would not be able to produce receipts for his expenses in Libya as in most places he went the people simply did not know how to read & write)

4) In reviewing D's accounts, [redacted] was able to reduce our claim from $7,550 Libyan pounds to $1.500 Libyan pounds. D said the difference was attributable to an oversight in separating his accounts from those of his traveling companion (Virginia Reeves)

5) [redacted] In evaluation of D's performance covered with [redacted] information which may be of interest was almost completely restricted ---- because of the notable absence of specific detail." [redacted] On the other hand it was pointed out that D was useful in providing operational information and in structuring a Trieste source of the [redacted] country

6) [redacted] in discussing D's claim cited him advanced the theory that it was primarily D's former traveling companion who gave D the idea of asking for special compensation. As at one point, D showed [redacted] an offer of employment to him from the N.Y. State Dept of Welfare. The starting salary as a "learner" was at a GS-5 level with steady promotions assured up to GS-8 within 2 yrs. This, D said, proved how well paid Americans were, even in very subordinate positions — and all of them, he added, received $20.00 per day traveling expenses.

7) The question that Rome wished to resolve was whether D's op. potential of sufficient worth to warrant his retention. [redacted] was of the opinion that his op. potential in Italy was practically nil, also, there was reason to believe that he was at least "singed" in Arab circles in Rome — and even if he were not, it would take the daily attention of a case officer to develop & control this potential. In addition,

h. has been instructed to concentrate on joint operations with [redacted]. Work not to develop exploitive agent.

8) In view of the above it was the view of the [redacted] that D should be dropped. The matter was discussed with [redacted] while they were in Rome. It was the final consensus of opinion that D should be released with a fine settlement that would take into consideration his past services for Kubark and make the break a friendly one.

9) In [redacted] dated 30 Sept 1959 (drafted prepared by N.E.) Hqtrs concurred with this recommendation

10. [redacted] (in 19910) dated 16 Dec 1959 advised that D was terminated 12 Dec 1959 at which time he "signed quit claim + Secrecy Agreement". D requested:—

a) One Month's Salary for every every year of employment (13 years) plus 3 months advance notice, plus $1000.00 for trip he made to Near East:

13 Months pay @ 55,000 lire	715,000 lire
3 " advance notice @ 55,000 lire	165,000 "
Trip Middle East $1000.00 @ 620 lire)	620,000 "
Total	1,500,000 "
Less 160,000 lire (Libya trip advance)	160,000 "
	1,340,000 "