TO: Commissioner
Immigration and Naturalization Service
Attention: Mr. A. C. Dyer, Jr.

FROM: Deputy Director, Plans

SUBJECT: DJUJIC, Momcilo

1. Reference is made to your letter dated 9 December 1960, file No. CO 105.3-C, requesting information concerning the subject named above. The Momcilo DJUJIC, mentioned in our CSCI-3/755,074, dated 5 June 1959, was born 27 February 1907, at Topolja, Knin, Yugoslavia, and appears to be identical with the individual interviewed by your Service. According to information in our files, Momcilo DJUJIC of our reference, an orthodox priest, was a Chetnik commander under General Drasa Mihajlovic operating in the Lika area north of Split, Yugoslavia. There is varied and conflicting information on this individual. He reportedly was glorified as a national hero by General Mihajlovic, and later was accused of collaboration with the Ustashi (a Croation-Fascist organization which served the Germans during World War II), the Italians, and the Germans. He was also wanted by the Tito government in 1946 as a war criminal, as indicated in our CSCI-3/755,074. For further information concerning the war criminal charges against Subject, you are referred to the Department of State.

2. The information in our files concerning Subject has been reported under the following aliases and variant spellings: PETROVIC, Simisa; PEZIO, Guido; DJUIC, Momcilo "Pop"; and DJUICH, Momcilo Vojvoda.
