El Salvador Requests Extradition of Hans Christ

The Government of El Salvador (GOES) has formally requested that the United States extradite Hans Christ (Krist), who is wanted in connection with the murders of two American labor officials. (See the issues of 7 January and 3 June.) Christ's attorney intends to fight the extradition attempt and stated that his client passed a polygraph test. A key witness for the GOES, Teresa de Jesus Torres, testified that she saw Christ and his brother-in-law, Ricardo Sol Mesa, standing over the bodies immediately after the shooting. According to Torres, Sol Mesa and Christ threatened to kill her if she told anyone what she saw. In her latest affidavit, Torres apparently has retracted her statements.
