Iraq Orders Terrorist Attacks

Iraqi radio yesterday urged Muslims to strike the "interests, facilities, symbols, and figures" of the United States, Britain, France, the Netherlands, Saudi Arabia, the followers of the Emir of Kuwait and their allies "wherever they may be found," and it asserted "the time has come to crush the enemy and erase the disgrace." The broadcast added that "there is no longer any room for delay because the great duel, the mother of battles has begun." The Iraqi broadcast was followed by a statement from Jordan's parliament urging Arabs and Muslims to strike out at the interests of the anti-Iraqi military coalition.
