INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

PUEBLO SITREP No. 6
(As of 1200 EST)

1. There have been no further North Korean statements concerning the Pueblo, and intercepted North Korean messages have contained no new information on the location or condition of captured US personnel.

4. President Pak Chong-hui is very likely under increasing pressure from within his regime to take some retaliatory action against the North Koreans following the attempt on his life Monday. South Korean casualties resulting from this incident and subsequent operations thus far total about seventeen killed and twenty-seven wounded.

5. Peking has continued to remain silent on the capture of the Pueblo and is similarly ignoring the North Korean attack two days ago on the South Korean presidential residence.
