22 February 1945.

MEMO TO: Major CROSBY.

2. [REDACTED] was not put in jail by the French and was living, when recruited, with a family in Heimansdorf near Alkirch. She was put in Schirmek on 19 February 1945, because we found we had no more use for her as she had not succeeded on the four attempts to infiltrate her.

3. In view of her past record as anti-nazi, it is possible that the French in Mulhouse would let her free. It is suggested this matter be investigated by Capt Binder regarding the status of [REDACTED] as it is felt by this office she should be returned to Heimansdorf where recruited.
