[REDACTED]

1. On August 1965 [REDACTED] Rolando Arcadio Masferrer Rojas, former Cuban senator, [REDACTED] is in touch with [REDACTED] regarding a plot to invade Haiti from the Dominican Republic. Masferrer is trying to recruit unmarried Cubans in New York who are willing to go to the Dominican Republic and eventually to live in Haiti. He does not want Cubans who would want to return to the United States because of family or for any other reason.
2. Masferrer asked [REDACTED] to manage a farm in the Dominican Republic which will be used as a training and staging area for about 100 men which Masferrer will recruit. This group will be enlarged by men which [REDACTED] has in the Dominican Republic.
3. [REDACTED] is negotiating with Dominicans to determine whether the recruits from New York will travel to the Dominican Republic with visas or whether they will enter the country illegally.
