MEMO. No. 498.

To: 7404/7417.

From: 7408.

18 April 1945.

BEAVER has asked whether we can provide him with 10 complete German Kriegsmarine uniforms, two of which should be of the type issued to junior officers. The uniforms should include leather belts, peak caps, top boots etc. and the sizes just average. The uniforms are wanted for the purpose of boarding Danish ships with a view to bringing them into Gothenburg.

2. I mentioned the matter to S.D. when I saw him on Monday and he thought there was a chance of getting these uniforms if we wrote to H.Q. and he mentioned somebody named Taylor as probably being the man who could help.
3. If H.Q. decide that they cannot do anything in the matter I would be grateful for a wire to this effect as soon as possible.
