1.	OGC - Attn: Mr.				1. On 23 June 1977 the ADDO received a telephone call at his residence from retired employee [redacted]. The latter gentleman was calling the ADDO from [redacted] to say that he was in receipt of a letter from Mr. David Martin which asked his cooperation in writing a book about former CIA employee Mr. William King Harvey. [redacted] indicated that the letter from Mr. Martin had led him to believe that Mr. Dave Phillips, a retired CIA employee and author of the book "The Night Watch", had furnished [redacted] name to Mr. Martin. [redacted] indicated that he was irritated by Mr. Phillips' action. At the same time he stated that it was his intent not to respond to Mr. Martin's letter. [redacted] then made the point that he was bringing this information to the ADDO's attention in order that the latter could prepare himself for any overture that he might receive from Mr. Martin. 2. [redacted] was thanked for the information contained in paragraph 1. The ADDO then stated that it was his intent to tell Mr. Martin, if he recontacted him that he had no interest in cooperating with him on a book concerning the [CONTINUED]
