SOURCE:

1. Fifteen jet planes and one frigate<sup>1</sup> left for Oriente Province on an unidentified date.
2. [redacted] 1962 arms deposits and six trucks with radar were observed at the airport in Camaguey (N 21-23, W 77-55) at the head of runway 25. The landing field is being lengthened and it is rumored that the Soviet TU-114s will be using this field.
3. At the airport in Cienfuegos (N 22-09, W 80-27), Las Villas Province, an unidentified number of guns has been observed for the first time next to the warehouses in which arms are stored.
4. In the area of Jaruco (N 23-03, W 82-00), Habana Province, rains have flooded out the artillery emplacements and troop billets. Tanks had to be hauled out of their hiding places and many of them were stuck in the mud.
5. The rains also flooded out similar defenses positioned along the north coast of Pinar del Rio Province.
6. In mid-July 1962 Soviet ships received an order to speed up their loading and unloading activities and to leave Cuba quickly.
  1. [redacted] Comment. [redacted] did not specify the date or from which port the frigate left, it is believed to have left Mariel between 1 and 10 July 1962.
