

APPROVED FOR RELEASE DATE:
03-Sep-2008

PERSONAL HISTORY SUMMARY

NAME: Mr. John W. Debelius, Jr.

ADDRESS: 631 Blossom Drive, Rockville, Maryland 20850

Central Intelligence Agency

Employment consisted of the following:

Responsible for conducting personnel security investigations relative to the Agency's security clearance program. In the conduct of such, the Officer is responsible for interviewing and preparing reports on the findings.

Performance of general security functions including planning, directing, and coordinating the physical security of Agency facilities assuring their effective protection against unauthorized penetration. Specific duties include special investigations and surveys; monitoring, inspecting and coordinating security support; planning and implementing safety, fire prevention and protection programs. Provides technical guidance and assistance on security matters, policies and procedures including counsel and guidance to personnel.

Managed and supervised on a regional office level, an industrial security program covering many contractors and a large geographical area. Trained and supervised staff of security officers who performed surveys, inspections, and briefings on special clearance matters.

Reviewed and coordinated activities of approximately  security officers assigned within the Agency Directorate responsible for Science and Technology. Has liaison with other Agency directorates, the AEC, the Office of Industrial Security and the Defense Contract Administration Services and numerous other Government agencies. Acts as security advisor to a Deputy Director of CIA.