2. Attached is a report of an interview recently held with Subject, during which he indicated his belief that several of his associates at the Army Language School and at Harvard University were sympathizers toward Communism, or had participated in Communist activity. In addition, he stated he had signed a petition which may have been Communist sponsored, and that in his adolescent years he was "sympathetic to Communism in the Utopian sense."

3. It is requested that your confidential informants in Cambridge, Massachusetts; New York City (Columbia University); and at the University of Michigan be contacted to see if there is any indication that Subject has participated in any Communist activity in those areas. In view of the information in the attached report, it is further requested that additional inquiries be made to determine whether further processing under Executive Order 10450 is required.

SUBJECT: FELDMAN, Horace Zeigler

During a recent interview, Subject indicated that during 1940 or 1941 he had attended an open meeting at the New Lecture Hall at Harvard University where the principle speaker was [redacted]. During 1940 or 1941, Subject stated, he had signed a petition against war, but could not recall if the petition was sponsored by a Communist organization, or, in fact, who had sponsored the petition. Subject stated that during his adolescent years he was sympathetic to Communism in a Utopian sense.

During the interview, Subject stated that there were a number of individuals whom he had known in the past who quite possibly could have been Communist sympathizers in varying degrees. The following are individuals whom Subject placed in this category.

~~X~~ SCHURMANN, Herbert Franz

Subject stated that SCHURMANN was his classmate at Harvard, but he claims that he hates SCHURMANN, and there was no social contact between him and SCHURMANN. Subject met him for the last time in Tokyo about a year ago while SCHURMANN was in Japan on a fellowship. Subject stated that SCHURMANN is definitely a confirmed Marxist.

In a memorandum from the FBI dated 30 June 1952, subject "Herbert Franz SCHURMANN", a reliable confidential source indicated that Franz SCHURMANN was a member of the John Reed Society at Harvard University.
