SUBJECT: Susan SACKS
Larry LITSKY (NL)

COOPER, U.C.A.

1. [redacted] Susan SACKS and Larry LITSKY, both residing in Paris, are associated with the organization, "Science for Vietnam", (SFV). Subjects mentioned that the SFV was founded about two years ago in Chicago and that the organization's objectives are to conduct scientific research for North Vietnam; to denounce the United States' application of science in Vietnam; and to confront the U.S. scientific community on this issue. According to Subjects, the Science for Vietnam organization received one grant at its founding, but now is dependent solely upon contributions for its existence.

2. LITSKY allegedly received a French grant to do research on French surrealism but, to date, has done little work on it. SACKS was employed at the Agence de Presse Liberation but recently quit over a difference of opinion. Subjects are reportedly without funds but [redacted] they claim they are trying to sell news articles.
