

(b)(1)
(b)(3)

—

(b)(1)
(b)(3)

~~SECRET~~

C E L O S I / S T

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

DIRECTORATE OF INTELLIGENCE

TERRORISM SITUATION REPORT

6 July 2003
0300 EDT

Female Suicide Bombers Attack Moscow Concert

Yesterday afternoon, two female suicide bombers with suspected ties to Chechen separatists detonated two bombs during an outdoor rock concert at the Tushino Airfield in Moscow, killing at least 15 and wounding at least 30, [redacted] Although no groups have claimed responsibility for the attacks, [redacted]

[redacted] The other bomber, who has not been identified, died after detonating a bomb thought to contain approximately 500 grams of explosives and metal shrapnel. The attack site, Tushino Airfield, is not used for commercial flights in and out of Moscow, but rather for festivals, concerts, and occasional skydiving. No US casualties have been reported [redacted]

APPROVED FOR RELEASE □ DATE:
18-Sep-2008

~~SECRET~~