Dear Mr. Nitze:

As you know, your current contract with us will expire 30 June 1956. The help and guidance you have given us is sincerely appreciated and we hope that you are willing to continue serving with us in a consultant capacity.

Formal action to extend your contract (Personal Service Contract [redacted] through 30 June 1957 requires a signed statement from you accepting such extension. Your signature on the enclosed copy of this letter will serve that purpose and it would be appreciated if you would sign and return it to us at your earliest convenience.

This extension is, of course, subject to the availability of an appropriation to carry on our functions. Also, as you know, your status does not entitle you to regular Federal leave and retirement benefits.

Thank you again for your valuable assistance in the past. We are looking forward to your continued association with us.

Sincerely,

*7/1
