

SECURITY REMINDER

1. I, GERARD K. HUGHES, have been reminded that, by virtue of my duties with the Central Intelligence Agency, I have been the recipient of classified information and information concerning intelligence sources and methods, and that my Entrance on Duty Secrecy Agreement, as amended, requires me to protect such data. Moreover, I have been given an opportunity to review my Entrance on Duty Secrecy Agreement.

2. I have also been reminded that I am not permitted to retain any documents or other materials which are the property of the CIA or the custodial responsibility of the CIA, and I affirm that I do not have in my possession, nor am I taking away from CIA any such documents or materials. I have also been reminded that as a former employee, I am no longer authorized access to classified information and should not seek to obtain classified information from current employees without first obtaining proper authorization for such access.

3. Finally, I am aware of my responsibility to notify the CIA promptly in the event I am called upon by properly constituted authorities to testify or provide information that I am pledged not to disclose and I will advise said authority of my secrecy agreement and request that my obligation to testify be established before I am required to do so.

The Privacy Act, Public Law 93-579, requires that Federal agencies inform individuals when they are asked to provide their Social Security Account Number (SSN) whether the disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what authority such number is solicited and what uses will be made of the SSN. Disclosure by you of your SSN on this form is voluntary. The number is used as a means to facilitate a search of records for the purpose of compiling statistical data relative to applicants. Failure to provide your SSN may delay processing your application. The authority for this solicitation is Executive Order 9397.
