You accepted an invitation from Mary Rose Oakar, President of the Arab American Anti-Discrimination Committee to speak at a Ramadan Iftar dinner held at the Bint Jebail Cultural Center in Dearborn, MI.

Upon your arrival at about 1830 [redacted]

[redacted] will greet and escort you inside the cultural center where you will be met by George Little, Chief of Media Relations, to prepare for several private media interviews. The Middle East Broadcasting Network will interview you first followed by Voice of America. After your recorded interviews, you will hold a short session with print reporters from TIME, the Associated Press, Reuters, The Detroit News, Detroit Free Press, Arab American News, and Chaldean News. Our regular beat reporters and local Detroit affiliates are invited to listen to your remarks before dinner, but will not attend this private media session.

At about 1900 you will be taken to a private room for a ten-minute break. [redacted] will accompany you as you mingle with guests until 1930. Please note out of respect for Muslims attending the event most people will not drink until the fast is broken at about 2015. While socializing, you may have a beverage on hand in a discreet location.

At about 1935 guests will be directed to their seats and [redacted] will make welcoming remarks and introduce you. You will speak for approximately 20 minutes (no Q&A). Your remarks are open to the media.

Following your remarks, the Imams and the Chaldean Bishop will bless the crowd and dinner. The fast will be broken and dinner will be served at about 2015. After dinner, at about 2100, you will briefly visit each table thanking guests. You are scheduled to depart at about 2115.
