1. As of summer 1954, a large Soviet naval arsenal was observed at the railroad station of Bumakino (N 57-25, E 40-14), on the north side of the railroad line between Yaroslavl and Nerechta. Stored at this arsenal are naval weapons, shells, mines, optical instruments, and other supplies. Artillery shells and mines are also assembled here. The large area occupied by the arsenal is entirely enclosed by a fence.

2. Another naval arsenal is located at the railroad station of Podsolnechnaya (N 56-11, E 36-59), just north of Solnechnogorsk (N 56-10, E 36-59) on the Moscow-Leningrad railroad line.
