OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS
COMMUNICATIONS SECURITY DIVISION

COMMUNICATIONS BRIEFING

I, (print) John L. Poe, do solemnly swear (or affirm) not to divulge to unauthorized persons any classified information concerning the communications method of operation, cryptographic systems, organization, communications channels or facilities used by the Central Intelligence Agency.

I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I shall not discuss, divulge, publish or cause to be published any information concerning the cryptographic facilities, systems, or procedures employed by other United States Government Departments or Agencies of which I am cognizant by virtue of my communications duties with CIA.

I further swear (or affirm) that I shall not discuss, divulge, publish or cause to be published any classified information or intelligence of which I am cognizant by virtue of my communications duties with CIA unless specifically authorized in writing in each case by the Director of Central Intelligence.

I have read the provisions of Public Law 513 and understand that after severing my relations with CIA, I am still bound by that Law and if it is violated, I am subject to its penalties.

I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion.

Signed: John L. Poe
Date: 18 May 1954
