DAILY BRIEF
7 AUGUST 1965

1. Vietnam

A Soviet cargo ship, the Polotsk,

50X1

is en route to Haiphong. The ship unloaded military cargo in Indonesia; there is no evidence it is carrying such cargo now.

50X1

2. South Vietnam

There has been no significant change in the situation at Duc Co in Pleiku Province, where South Vietnamese airborne troops are trying to eliminate Viet Cong harassment of a government paramilitary camp.

3. Communist China

The loss of two Chinese Nationalist patrol craft on 5 August in an encounter with Chinese Communist naval vessels off the mainland coast at the southern end of the Taiwan Strait appears so far to be an isolated incident.

50X1

There is no sign of any other significant Communist military reaction to what seems to have been a Nationalist incursion into Communist-controlled waters. (See map)

4. Indonesia

[Redacted]

50X1

[Redacted] Sukarno collapsed three days ago and was still in bed yesterday.

50X1

Despite Sukarno's long-standing kidney ailment, for which he delays proper treatment, he has seemed quite chipper lately.

50X1

[Redacted] a team of Chinese Communist doctors has been scheduled to visit Djakarta and there is some suspicion that another acupuncture treatment may be involved.

50X1

[Redacted]

50X1

although Sukarno may only have the flu, background political maneuvering may already have begun against the possibility it is more serious.

5. Greece

The King continues to talk with political leaders. The last word [Redacted]

50X1

[Redacted] was that he would delay until Monday announcing his next choice for the premiership, even though he may make his decision today.

The Communist press is playing up a fabricated document purporting to link the US with a tragic explosion last November at a Communist-sponsored celebration. This is an obvious effort to discredit pro-US elements during this period of crisis.

50X1

6. Dominican Republic

The Organization of American States team continues its talks with leaders from both sides. It may publicize its proposals Monday in hopes of building up popular support for them.
