PERTINENT INFORMATION
This case originated at Washington Field Date When Made: 31 Jan 52 Character of Case: Registration Act The following information wa furnished in July 1951 by T-1, another govt agency. Page 4. Dr. Vojtech S. Krajcovic was born February 4, 1914, and was a minor functionary in Slovakia during World War II. It is reported that at one time he was a follower of Ferdinand DURCANSKY, former Slovakian Minister of Foreign Affairs who was strongly pro-Nazi in 1938-1940, and who was listed as a war criminal by the United Nations War Crime Commission. Page 5. Fridavok also reported that Krajcovic was a friend of Dr. Ferdinand DURCANSKY, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Slovakian Republic, and that it was decided by them in the spring of 1944 that it should be expeditious to establish contact with United States Military authorities. Krajcovic obtained the necessary documents from DURCANSKY and also obtained an automobile from the Yugoslavian legation in Bratislava. During the existence of the Slovakian State, Krajcovic was Director of the Economic Section of the Slovakian National Bank.....He was a close friend of Dr. Ferdinand DURCANSKY, With the end of the Slovakian State, Krajcovic began an association with a Professor Poupet-Bach, and through DURCANSKY, he procured various identification papers for this man..... Page 8. In February 1949, according to T-1, the most powerful Slovakian separatist groups in exile lined up between two competing leaders, namely, Karol Sidor, and Ferdinand DURCANSKY. DURCANSKY reorganized his exile organization, the Slovakian Action Committee, and renamed it the Slovakian Liberation Committee, on March 12, 1949. Page 9. T-1 reported that Krajcovic intervened against granting a United States visa to Sidor stating to American authorities that Sidor had been pro-Nazi. He also reported that DURCANSKY was pro-Nazi and that his (Krajcovic) own organization.... Page 10. The informant pointed out that even Krajcovic's alleged opposition to DURCANSKY is subject to question since he receives his principal support in the United States from ardent supporters of Durcansky, one of which is the Slovak v Amerike group. THAT IS ALL THE PERTINENT INFO ON SUBJECT IN THE DOCUMENT; TAKEN VERBATIM.
